213

Measures 213-216 show a variety of musical patterns. The bassoon part is prominent, particularly in measures 215 and 216. The score includes five staves, each with a different clef and key signature.

217

Measures 217-220 continue the musical development. The bassoon part is integrated into the overall texture, providing harmonic support and rhythmic drive. The score maintains its five-staff format throughout.

221

Measures 221-224 conclude the section. The bassoon's role remains integral to the harmonic and rhythmic structure. The score's five-staff layout is consistently applied.
